

HPD-04 is intended as a remote entry into a NEMA Type-4 enclosure to gain quick access to a printer or any internal device without opening the enclosure main door.

The door components are cold rolled steel with a polyester powder painted finish, and the installation hardware is stainless steel. The latch is a hand operated thumb knob style compression latch. The door will install with the free swinging hinge oriented in any direction.

SECTION A-A
SCALE 1 : 6

